July 20 is "ugly truck day". How many can you spot by dinner time.

July 24 is "Parents Day". Today is not a day of gift giving. That's for Mother's Day and Father's Day. The best way to mark this day is by spending time with your parents doing something fun. Its also important that you let them how much they are loved and appreciated.

Swimming pools and splash pads have reopened in Caledonia, Dunnville and Hagersville. People will need to reserve their spots for free public and fitness swims. Walk-ins will only be considered if there's space available. This can be done on the Haldimandcounty.ca or by calling 905-318-5932. These reservations will be accepted on a week-by-week basis. Participants are being asked to limit how many slots they book so that everyone has a chance to enjoy a recreational swim.

Haldimand County Introduces Virtual Summer Programming For Children, Families July 17, 2020 in Recreation Programs

As parents and children look for interesting and innovative ways to fill their summer days this year, Haldimand County is taking a virtual approach to programs and activities.

Beginning Monday, July 20, Haldimand introduces virtual summer programming. Staff will be releasing videos on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays for the next six (6) weeks, sharing activity options for children and families including 'staycation' day-trips and itineraries, sports and craft ideas, 'how-to' webinars and more. Three (3) contests will take place each week, and one Grand prize winner to be drawn at the end of summer. All details related to summer programming and how to participate is available at HaldimandCounty.ca/summer2020/.
